68th Annual Meeting

The 68th Annual Meeting will be held on March 17, 2024, at a location TBA, and the nominating committee will present a list of eligible nominees to fill the expiring terms of three current board members. The board is comprised of seven volunteers elected by our membership. In 2025, three members will be elected for a three-year term. Potential volunteers must fit the following criteria:

- Must be in good standing with the credit union;
- Able to dedicate time to credit union business, meetings, and projects;
- Willing to serve without pay for the benefit of others; and
- Must be 18 years old or older.

Members interested in being nominated are encouraged to send a letter expressing their interest and qualifications by Dec. 1, 2024.

Send letters to:
Nominating Committee
Coastal Community Federal Credit Union
P.O. Box 2026
Galveston, TX 77553

Nominations will NOT be accepted from the floor, as defined by our bylaws. Be on the lookout for more information on our annual meeting in our next newsletter, on our website, and social media channels.

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Maggie Danon

Maggie, who is a Member Services Representative at our CE Branch, has done an outstanding job in our lending department. She follows up with members, reaches out before the 30-day pre-approval period, is always professional and broke a lending record for the month of August. She goes above and beyond for our members, and we want to show our appreciation by recognizing her. Keep up the good work, Maggie!
